1. THE ACT

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000, PAIA gives effect to section 32 of the Constitution, which provides that everyone has the right to access information held by the State, as well as information held by another person (or private body) when such privately held information is required to exercise a right or to protect a right.

PAIA, provides that a person requesting information must be given access to any record of a private body, if that record is required for the exercise or the protection of a right. However, such request has to comply with the procedural requirements laid down by the Act.

2. COMPANY INFORMATION AND THE INFORMATION OFFICER

Rich Products Corporation Africa (A Division of Hotbake Systems (Pty) Limited) has been established in 1987 to offer a diverse range of product offerings to provide a variety of best-in-class bakery products.

The IT Manager has been duly appointed as the Information Officer by the Chief Executive Officer, to act as the person to whom requests for access to information must be made in terms of the Act.

5. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD

5.1 Subjects and Categories of Records held

The inclusion of any subject or category of records should not be taken as an indication that records falling within those subjects and/or categories will be made available under the Act. In particular, certain grounds of refusal as set out in the Act may be applicable to a request for such records.

- Company Information
- Financial and Tax Records
- Banking Details
- Employment Records
- Intellectual Property
- Insurance Records
- Immovable and Movable Property Records
- Information Technology
- Agreements relating to the Business Activities
- Miscellaneous Agreements
- Correspondence
- Information relating to legal proceedings
- Interests and Investments

5.2 The Request Procedure and Fees

- 5.2.1 The requester must use the prescribed form (Annexure A) to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the Information Officer. This request must be made to the address or electronic mail address of the Information Officer of the Company.
- 5.2.2 The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if he or she wishes to be informed in any other manner and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.
- 5.2.3 The requester must identify the right that he or she is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation as to why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- 5.2.4 If a request is made on behalf of a person, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.

- 5.2.5 The Information Officer must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the fee of R50 before further processing the request. A personal requester does not pay such fee.
- 5.2.6 The requester may lodge an internal appeal or an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee.
- 5.2.7 The Information Officer will then decide on the request and notify the requester in the required form.
- 5.2.8 If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction, preparation and for any time that had exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

6. REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

6.1 Grounds to refuse Access

A private body such as the Company is entitled to refuse a request for information.

- 6.1.1 The main grounds for the Company to refuse a request for information relates to the:
 - 6.1.1.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;
 - 6.1.1.2 Mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory, or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;
 - 6.1.1.3 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party;
 - 6.1.1.4 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- 6.1.2 The commercial activities of a private body, such as the Company;
- 6.1.3 Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, of which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused;
- 6.1.4 All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.

6.2 Additional Grounds

The Promotion of Access to Information Act provides several grounds on which a request for access to information must be refused. These grounds mainly concern instances where the privacy and interests of other individuals are protected, where such records are already otherwise publicly available, where public interests are not served, the mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party, and the mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party. A complete list of the grounds for refusal is available in Chapter 4 of the Act.

7. REMEDIES

7.1 Internal Remedies

The Company does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

7.2 External Remedies

7.2.1 A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's reasons for refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

7.2.2 A third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's reasons for refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

For the purposes of the Act, the relevant Courts that have jurisdiction for such applications are:

- Constitutional Court;
- High Court;
- Another court of similar status; or
- Magistrate's Court designated by Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development.

8. PRESCRIBED FEES

8.1 The applicable fees are prescribed in terms of the Regulations promulgated under the Act. There are two types of fees payable:

- Request fee: A non-refundable request fee of R50 (excluding VAT) is payable on submission of any request for access to any record. This does not apply if the request is for personal records of the person requesting – in this instance no fee is payable.
- Access fee: An access fee is payable prior to being granted access to the records in the form required. These fees are prescribed in Part III of Annexure A as defined in Government gazette Notice No. 187, Regulation 11.

- 8.2 When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer will by notice require the requester to pay the prescribed fee, before further processing of the request.
- 8.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer will notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 8.4 The Information Officer will withhold a record until the requester has paid the relevant fee.
- 8.5 A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for the search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form.
- 8.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.
- 8.7 All fees are subject to change as allowed for in the Act and as a consequence such escalations may not always be immediately available at the time of the request being made. Requesters will be informed of any changes to the fees prior to making a payment.

9. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

- 9.1 The manual is available for inspection at the offices of the Company at no cost and on the Company's website - www.richs.co.za. Copies are also available with the SAHRC.
